

Davao Central College

College Supreme Students Government

Constitution

and

By-Laws

Preface

The Davao Central College-College Supreme Student Government- Constitution and By-Laws are intended to establish the norms and regulations, as well as the obligations and responsibilities of student leaders. It also includes information to help advise and answer the needs of the regulatory entities participating in student government.

Though this Constitution and By-Laws direct information to support and guide the work of student leaders, it does not rationalize all of the dynamic factors that occur in a student's life from time to time; thus, any decision that exists and shall be made in the council should always have the approval of the school administration or any of the appropriate school personnel.

All provisions may be amended, altered, revised, or interpreted by the College Supreme Student Government.
